

Spirit Tickets 2018 - How to Order!

- Pre-sales registration for tickets will be available from 6 April at 16:00 CET from our website homepage.
- To continue to keep things fair we've improved the process for purchasing tickets and everyone will have the same opportunity to purchase tickets from 6 April 16:00 CET – 10 April 11:00 CET. Customers will find out if they have been successful or not from 11 April 2018 and their payment will then be processed accordingly.
- IMPORTANT – anyone logging on to register for tickets must have registered at Lifeplus.com first, otherwise they won't be able to order tickets via the ticket site.
- When logging in to order tickets, you must then use your Lifeplus.com login details.
- If you already have a Lifeplus.com login but haven't used it recently, we recommend checking that your login works before 6 April.
- Italian customers can again register for tickets, using the same online process as everyone else.
- Successful orders will be based on us first attempting to fill all FIRST orders for each pin. Our detailed selection process can be found below.
- Early Bird tickets allocation will finish at 11:00 CET on 10 April and if tickets are still available, customers can go online from 16 April at 16:00 CET to purchase further tickets at the regular price.
- Ticket price:
35EUR Early Bird Day Ticket, 40EUR regular price
50EUR Early Bird Evening Ticket, 55EUR regular price
- We accept direct debit payments for Euro currency customers that already have direct debits in place. Customers in Germany can set up new direct debit payments. All other transactions must be paid for by credit card.
- If children are coming to the day event and need their own seat they will need a ticket.
- We will allocate evening seating based on the upline Diamond of the ticket purchaser (where possible).
- Please send any event or ticket questions by email to marketingevents@lifeplus.com.

Spirit Tickets 2018 - How to Order!

Selection Process:

You may place as many orders as you like during the pre-sales registration period. Whether you place your pre-sale order on the first day or last day of the pre-sale period, your chance of being allocated tickets are the same. Once the pre-sale registration period ends, Lifeplus will allocate tickets.

If there are not enough tickets for all pre-sale requests, tickets will be allocated in the following way:

- We will first allocate tickets to each PIN's first order.
- If there are not enough tickets for each PIN's first order, then Lifeplus will randomly choose among those first orders and fill the chosen orders.
- If each PIN's first orders are filled and there are remaining tickets, then the same process will be used to choose and fill second orders for each PIN and so on.

It's important to note that while you may place as many pre-sale requests as you would like, if Lifeplus allocates tickets to your pre-sale requests, those will be final sales with no refund possible.

Good luck in securing your Spirit 2018 tickets before they're gone!
